ReverseLinks.com Made Me a Monthly Link Offer

Sunday, 22 April 2007

Ha? I received a link offer from ReverseLinks today. But I'm not sure what it means. Take a look below:

It's the weirdest thing that happened to me. I have an offer to place a link back to my site? Furthermore it's $40 a month! Although I've gladly accepted the offer, I need to wait for the person who requested the link request to make the payment before I can upload the link to my site.

No payment = No live links

Take a look at the screenshot below:

If the person made an offer, it's $40 next month! Yes! That'll be good earnings, even better compared to Text Link Ads. But I'm having doubts. I think the advertiser purposely entered my own link and not letting me know what sort of link that they want me to put on my website. Furthermore, I don't have a single clue who the advertiser is.

$40 come in to my account now! Cheers!
