
Money4Blogs Busted, Close Shop, End of the Road, Bankrupt?

Has Money4Blogs gone busted? They gave me a link request earlier this year for $35 and payment was prompt. I requested for more links but it seems they don't have more to offer. A couple of months back, I visited their website and it started to go awry and erratic. The site was up and down and up and finally I check today – DOWN.

What has happened to Money4Blogs? Read my previous articles on them by clicking the links below:

Did Robert Ricks pull the final plug on the site? Or did he just forget to pay his hosting fees?
