
Advertlets.com An OK Online Income

Sunday, 13 May 2007

I've participated on Advertlets for less than a month. Josh Lim is a fantastic person. He's the person behind the veil and the man of the operations. Well as far as I can see, Advertlets is a good income earner. Just few days after their site started displaying ads, I've managed to earn quite a good income from them – roughly $1.50 in just a few days..

If compared to Vizu, Advertlets have 5 points ahead. Vizu is a darn slow income earner. I had to wait months and the income per month is $2 to $3 per month. I have to hit $50 before they cash it in to my PayPal. Makes me wonder whether should I maintain the Vizu polls on my site…

Anyway, for those who are unfamiliar with Advertlets, you can read my blog post by clicking here – Advertlets Posts

Cheers!
