

God of War 2

Sunday, 29 April 2007

It's so tempting. I can't resist to leave this behind. I've been watching almost every movie on YouTube regarding God of War 2! The graphics are simply eye boggling. Although I can see that the controls that appeared on the screen shows that this game is designed for PS2, heck I think it can also be played by PC as well.

Take a look at one of the God of War 2 game review movie below:

If you enjoy this, hop on to my other site to watch some more movies. Cheers!
